A few tips and ideas to consider when filling out your scholarship application.

- Create interest – information should leap off the page.
 - List items in level of importance. If you are a national qualifier, it should go before any regional titles.
 - Spell out association names at least once before using abbreviations.
 - This application is presented in a format that encourages you to type your information on additional sheets of paper. NO HANDWRITTEN APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
 - These bullets are an example of how to list your responses in outline form.
 - Run spell check AND grammar check!
- This is an academic scholarship from a rodeo association. Make sure you include scholastic honors in addition to your rodeo honors.
- That goes for extra-curricular activities, too. Do not focus on just your rodeo activities.

- Narrative instructions - 1 page, double-spaced, size 12 font, Arial or Times New Roman font.
(This page is size 12 Arial font, double-spaced with ½ inch margins.)
- N/A is not an acceptable response.
- It is okay to ask questions. That is why the committee members' names and phone numbers are provided in the cover letter. We want you to do well.
- Do not wait until the last minute to start on this. Vital information will be forgotten if you are in a rush to meet the April 6th deadline.
- Follow instructions and PROOFREAD. You are asking for money for college, show the selection committee why you are a deserving candidate.
- Print on white paper only.
- Do not include divider pages or tab
- Do not include more photographs than requested. Since this is a scholarship awarded by a rodeo association the preference is that the photo be of you in western attire
- A portion of the grading rubric is your ability to follow instructions.

Good luck!
